OGR TORINO

Corso Castelfidardo 22

The new hub of innovation and art in Torino. Built between 1885 and 1895 and dedicated to the maintenance of railway vehicles, the OGR are today a thriving hub for creativity, culture, innovation and entertainment.

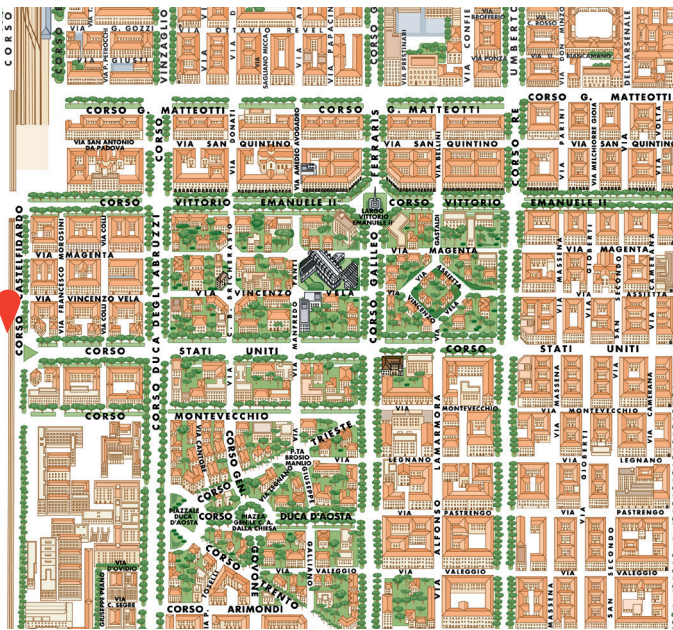

How to get to there

The OGR are located close to the city centre and they can be reached in a short time by metro or bus.

By car. From the main motorways Piacenza, Pavia, Genova, Savona, Milano, Aosta, Frejus and Pinerolo - direction Torino, continue on the South Ringroad - exit Corso Unità d'Italia. Continue on Corso Bramante, turn on Corso Galileo Ferraris, then on Corso Duca degli Abruzzi, Corso Stati Uniti and finally on Corso Castelfidardo.

By train. From Porta Nuova railway station: underground line 1, station Vinzaglio; bus lines 33, 68. From Porta Susa railway station: underground line 1, tram line 10, bus line 57.

By plane. The international Torino Airport is 16km from the city centre and can be reached in 30' by taxi (on the left at the exit of the Arrival level) or with the ARRIVA or FLIBCO bus services.

EXTRA VERMOUTH. THE VERMOUTH™ TIME IN TORINO

EXTRA Vermouth is not just a tasting: it is a ritual, a unique experience.

A gastronomic pleasure and, at the same time, a didactic opportunity to discover the aromatised wine that appeared at the end of the 18th century at the court of the Savoy family in the shops of Torino's liquor makers. Vermouth is served cold, with or without ice, with untreated and organic lemon or orange peel.

Alongside the real Vermouth di Torino, a selection of typical local products and piedmontese cuisine.

Check out here the rates and the participating establishments.
